Mrs. Taft to Preside at Garden Party To-morrow.

MR. KNOX DINNER HOST

Sir Robert and Lady Hadfield Return to New York After Brief Stay with the Latter's Brother and Sister-in-law, the Attorney General and Mrs. Wickersham.

Mrs. Taft is rapidly improving from her recent indisposition, and expects to carry out her plans for her garden party tomorrow afternoon

Master Charlie Taft, whose tonsils were operated on early in the week, in one of the hospitals, has been removed to he White House, and he also expects to be out again in a few days. Mrs. Taft was greatly missed from the band concert yesterday afternoon on the speedway, known now as Potomac Drive. This was the first concert she has missed since the formal opening of the drive and the first concert held there.

The Secretary of State and Mrs. Know entertained at dinner last night, with 175 guests, at Rauscher's. They were the Vice President and Mrs. Sherman, the foreign Ambassadors who are in the city, many of the foreign Ministers, secretaries, and attaches of legations, many prominent officials, and a large number of well known and prominent residents. Dr. Vogel, the retiring Swiss Minister who has been in New York for a few days, returned yesterday, to be present, and Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Lee, who are spending a fortnight at Old Point Com fort, came up for the dinner. Dr. Vogel will go back to New York to-day for a short stay.

Sir Robert and Lady Hadfield, of England, who have been the guests of the latter's brother and sister-in-law, the Attorney General and Mrs. Wickersham, returned to New York yesterday, and will emain for a short time in this country.

Mr. Kroupensky, of the Russian Embassy staff, has sailed for this country after a prolonged absence in his own country, and is expected to arrive here Frightened Simian Leads Crowds in late this week. He will at once settle the question of a summer embassy.

Mr. and Mrs. Augustus C. Downing last evening entertained a small company of young people at dinner, in honor of the house guest of their daughters, Miss Emery, of Morristown, N. J., who is spending the week with them.

Rust Hall Filled with Friends of Young Missionaries and Deaconesses-Rev. William H. Wilder. President of Institution, Confers Degrees on Forty Pupils.

Commencement week observances at the National Training School for Missionaries and Deaconesses were concluded last night with the graduation exercises held in Rust Hall, 1150 North Capitol

Rev. James M. Buckley, D. D., LL. D., editor of the Christian Advocate, addressed the members of the graduating class, taking for his subject, "The miaeries of the half-trained." He pictured the difference in any walk of life between the trained and the untrained. He declared that every one should have some object in life and work to attain it, and urged his hearers to make use of the training which they had received at the school so as to render a worthy account of their lives in the outside world. The exercises opened with a procession al by the students. Prayer was offered by Rev. Dr. John Reid Shannon. There re solos by G. Smith and Mrs. Reed The large auditorium room was filled more than 600 friends and relatives of the graduates being present. The graduates of the several courses were presented with diplomas by Rev. William H. Wilder, president of the chool, who complimented them on the high standard which they had maintained throughout the year, and wished them success in their work.
